

Contributor License Agreement

This Contributor License Agreement (“Agreement”) is agreed to by the party signing below (“You”), and conveys certain license rights to ELECTRICITE DE FRANCE (“EDF”) for Your Contributions to EDF open source Projects.

This Agreement is effective as of the latest signature date below.

1. Definitions.

“Code” means the computer software code, whether in human-readable or machine-executable form, that is Submitted by You to EDF under this Agreement.

“Contribution” means the Code or any original work of authorship or any other copyrightable material Submitted by You to EDF, including any associated comments and documentation but excluding communication that is conspicuously marked or otherwise designated in writing by You as “Not a Contribution”.

“Project” means any software products or projects and/or, as the case may be, related tools or documentation, owned or managed by EDF in which software code, related tools and/or documentation is proposed for use under a license approved by the Open Source Initiative (“OSI”) (www.opensource.org) and/or the Free Software Foundation (“FSF”) (<https://www.fsf.org/>) and/or a Creative Commons license (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses>).

“Submit” is the act of uploading, submitting, transmitting, or distributing the Code or other content to any Project, including but not limited to communication on electronic mailing lists, source code control systems, and issue tracking systems that are managed by EDF, or on behalf of EDF, for the Project for the purpose of discussing and improving that Project.

“You” means the copyright owner or legal entity authorized by the copyright owner that is entering into this Agreement with EDF. For legal entities, the entity making a Contribution is considered to be a single contributor.

2. Your Contribution. You accept and agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement before making a Contribution to any Project. This Agreement covers any and all Contributions that You, now or in the future (except as described in Section 4 below), Submit to any Project. In return, EDF shall not use Your Contributions in a way that is contrary to this license. Except for the license granted herein, You reserve all right, title, and interest in and to Your Contributions.

3. Originality of Work. You represent that each of Your Contributions is entirely Your original work. You may provide materials that are not Your original work, if (a) You Submit them separately from Your Contribution, (b) You preserve all copyright notices and licensing information (including applicable terms and conditions and restrictions) that were in the materials when You received them (or, make the indication in case there was no such notices or licensing information), (c) in the description accompanying Your Contribution, You include the phrase “Contribution containing materials of a third party:” followed by the names of the third party, and (d) You follow any other additional instructions in the Project’s written guidelines concerning Contributions, if any.

- 4. Your Employer. References to “employer” in this Agreement include Your employer or anyone else for whom You are acting in making Your Contribution. If Your Contribution is made in the course of Your work for an employer or if Your employer has intellectual property rights in Your Contribution by contract or applicable law, You must secure permission from Your employer to make the Contribution before signing this Agreement. In that case, the term “You” in this Agreement will refer to You and the employer collectively. If You change employers in the future and desire to Submit additional Contributions for the new employer, then You shall sign a new Agreement and secure permission from the new employer before Submitting those Contributions.
- 5. Grant of Copyright License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to EDF, and those who directly or indirectly receive the Contribution, a non-exclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, no-charge, royalty-free, sublicenseable license on copyrights to, directly or indirectly, use, copy, reproduce, represent, modify, prepare derivative works, publicly display, publicly perform, distribute Your Contributions on any support, whether existing or future, for any purpose, under any licensing terms, including without limitation: (a) open source licenses (such as licenses approved by the Open Source Initiative or the Free Software Foundation); and (b) proprietary or commercial licenses.
- 6. Grant of Patent License. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, You hereby grant to EDF, and to those who directly or indirectly receive the Contribution, a non-exclusive, perpetual, worldwide, no-charge, royalty-free, sublicenseable, irrevocable (except as stated in this section) patent licensable by You to make, have made, use, offer to sell, sell, import, or otherwise dispose of the Contribution alone or with the Project and otherwise transfer the Project, where such license applies only to those patent claims that are necessarily infringed by Your Contribution alone or by combination of Your Contribution with the Project to which it was Submitted. If any entity institutes patent litigation against You or any other entity (including a cross-claim or counterclaim in a lawsuit) alleging that your Contribution, or the Project to which you have contributed, constitutes direct or contributory patent infringement, then any patent licenses granted to that entity under this Agreement for that Contribution or Project shall terminate as of the date such litigation is filed.
- 7. Other Rights Reserved. Each party reserves all rights not expressly granted in this Agreement. No additional licenses or rights whatsoever (including, without limitation, any implied licenses) are granted by implication, exhaustion, estoppel or otherwise.
- 8. Representations and Warranties. You represent and warrant that (a) You are legally entitled to grant the above licenses, (b) each of Your Contributions is entirely Your original work (except as You may have disclosed under Section 3), (c) You have secured permission from Your employer to make the Contribution in cases where Your Contribution is made in the course of Your work for Your employer or Your employer has intellectual property rights in Your Contribution by contract or applicable law, (d) You have the necessary authority to bind the listed employer to the obligations contained in this Agreement if You are signing this Agreement on behalf of Your employer. You are not expected to provide support for Your Contribution, unless You choose to do so. UNLESS REQUIRED BY APPLICABLE LAW OR AGREED TO IN WRITING, AND EXCEPT FOR THE REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

EXPRESSLY STATED IN SECTIONS 3, 4, AND 8, THE CONTRIBUTION PROVIDED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" BASIS, WITHOUT WARRANTIES OR CONDITIONS OF ANY KIND, either express or implied, including, without limitation, any warranties or conditions of TITLE, NON-INFRINGEMENT, MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE.

- 9. Notice to EDF. You agree to notify EDF in writing of any facts or circumstances of which You later become aware that would make Your representations in this Agreement inaccurate in any respect.
- 10. Information about Contributions. You agree that Contributions to Projects and information about Contributions may be maintained indefinitely and disclosed publicly, including Your name and other information that You submit with Your Contribution.
- 11. Governing Law/Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by the laws of France, and the parties consent to exclusive jurisdiction and venue in the courts sitting in Paris, France without regard to conflict of laws principles or to conflict of jurisdictions principles.
- 12. Entire Agreement. This Agreement is the entire agreement between the parties, and supersedes any and all prior agreements, understandings or communications, written or oral, between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof.

Please select one of the options below and sign as indicated. By signing, You accept and agree to the terms of this Contributor License Agreement for Your present and future Contributions to EDF.
